

REOPENING TOGETHER

SAN RAMON VALLEY UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT

Update –SRVUSD Reopening Plan

December 15, 2020

WORK TO DATE

- Consultations
- Negotiations
- Declarations
- Schedules Elementary Completed / Secondary Completed by January 4, 2021
- Professional Development
- Logistics and Operations

CHANGES TO DECLARATION DATA

Nov 17

Dec 14

Percentage remote elementary	59.73%	65.01%
Percentage hybrid elementary	40.27%	34.99%
Percentage remote secondary	72.59%	75.84%
Percentage hybrid secondary	27.41%	24.16%

EMERGING CONTEXT

- The emerging science of this pandemic
- Staff, students' and parents' perspectives and concerns
- Stay-at-home order

COVID-19 DATA

	Oct 18	Nov 3	Dec 6*
Alamo	1.0	4.8	26.6
Danville	4.6	6.8	26.2
San Ramon	2.7	5.7	21.2
County	5.3	9.7	36.3

*(data posted December 15)

7 day case average per 100,000

PROPOSAL FOR THE BOARD'S CONSIDERATION

January 4, 2021: All students (including Special Day Classes) will be remote until Contra Costa County moves to the red tier

- Move to new classes and teachers: January 5th
- Pause specialized small groups until at least January 19th

RATIONALE

- We are committed and need to move forward as soon as the data improves (red tier)
- We are responding to this latest surge in terms of the Covid19 pandemic

KEY QUESTIONS

- If we are staying remote, why do we have to change our classes?
- Why do we need to wait until the red tier?
- Why will our Special Day / English Language / Intervention classes be returning to remote?
- Why are we pausing specialized small groups?

KEY QUESTIONS

- What is the process if I need to change my declaration?
- When will we move from hybrid to fulltime?
- Why is my declaration for the rest of the year?

ADDITIONAL CONSIDERATIONS

- Our students' wellbeing
- Our students' academic achievement
- Our staff's wellbeing
- Utilizing a metric (tiered system) that is not determined by SRVUSD

NEXT STEPS

- Town Hall Meetings-December 16, 2020
Staff- 3:15 p.m.
Community- 5 p.m.
- Communication to our community December 16, 2020
- Specific communication to students/families who have already been on campus for ~~pre~~ person instruction. (SDC/ELL)

Concluding Remarks

